

Know Your Staff

From 1994, Manoj Kenneth, a young History graduate evinced tremendous interest in youth ministry. He was a volunteer in YFC for six years conducting Tami Clubs and relating to the younger generation with great zeal. Ministry is his passion, particularly since the Lord's healing grace delivered him from dreaded cancer.

Since 2007, Manoj has been the Director of Trivandrum YFC, which is conducting 22 clubs, regular one day retreats in Karakonam Medical College and also the Nursing College. His hobby is music. Every Tuesday he conducts a workshop in music, which is called "Say it with music", attended by 18 youth, some of them from other faiths.

Manoj is encouraged in his ministry by Nisa, his wife. Their four and half year old son, Samuel, is the live-wire in all the camps and other programmes.

Pray for Manoj and his family.

MATHETES 2010 HYDERABAD DISCIPLESHIP CAMP

"Mathetes 2010", the Hyderabad YFC Discipleship Camp, took place from May 11th to 15th. Twenty three youth attended the camp. Topics like Prayer, Worship, Biblical Counseling and Holiness, were dealt with exhaustively. Mr. John Paul covered the doctrines of – The WORD, GOD, and SALVATION.

"I am committed to share the Gospel", said Jessy Paul.

"RIGHT CLICK" FOR THE YOUTH

Forty youth from Chennai, who regularly attend the Bible Study classes and music lessons, journeyed to Bangalore for a camp. The venue was Horeb, our training centre. They were joined by three young people from Bangalore. The theme was "Right Click" - mainly to do with right choices. They were initiated into biblical perspectives on Relationships, Attitudes, Stewardship, Media, and Suicide. Rev. C.A. Benjamin, Director FEBA, did the morning Bible studies every day and the other sessions were handled by YFC staff and volunteers.

"I have learnt to keep a tag on every choice I make"

- "I have learnt how to use my time to honour God."

- "I have learnt to filter what I watch and use my talents for the Lord"

CAMP ARISE 10 AT NILGIRIS

Praise God for our Evangelistic Camp held in Gell Memorial School, Ooty, for the youth of Nilgiris District held in April. 120 young people attended the Camp Arise 10. Some subjects dealt with were Attitude, Influence of Media, Bible Study Method and Know Your Body. Some young people who were addicted to drugs and alcohol decided to discontinue these habits with the help of the Lord.
